Message from the firm’s managing partner:

Appreciated friends:

For our work team, composed of professionals with different skills and for me in particular will be an honor if you take us into consideration to support you with the different business projects that your companies have.

Our work experience includes audit, account, local taxes and mercantile advice throughout the Republic of Guatemala. With all of our customers we have a constant communication and a relationship of several years allowing us to serve them efficiently and meet the objectives of the different activities in which they work including industry, commerce, services, agriculture and others.

We work with only one objective in mind: your success.

Attentively,

Eduardo Núñez Dubón
